

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law is very good and should not be tampered with by the federal government. Before I got calls from boiler room brokers who were taking advantage of peoples ignorance of their crooked schemes to pump prices on worthless stocks. Now they have stopped calling. When I get a call, I can report them. Do not change Indiana's law. -- Marvin Bartel